

CENTER FOR COLLABORATIVE SOLUTIONS

Afterschool Team

Gloria Halley

Gloria is a professional expert with a rural county office of education and has 20 years of experience building partnerships and coaching and mentoring more than 200 communities, programs and sites. She is a specialist in developing sustainable afterschool programs and has delivered more than 100 workshops on collaboration building, youth development, leadership, multiculturalism and program sustainability. Gloria received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and Sociology from California Baptist University.

